DIFFERENT

Ties

Anyone who walks around the St. John's campus during a school day is confronted with the obvious: about a thousand college prep students dressed in proper attire. And although these students look relatively similar from afar, the Different Ties they wear are actually a metaphor that breaks down the stereotypes of a school like St. John's. You see, like the Different Ties *each of us wears, we all possess a unique tie to life which makes St. John's so special. People are different, and the school's many facets (or "Ties," if you will) strengthen these differences. Consequently, it is our* Different Ties that make us stronger...

TIES

A combination of superb teachers and a core curriculum stressing the foundations of higher learning enables the St. John's student to be successful in college and in life. Besides learning about independent variables, civil wars, Shakespeare, and Copernicus, we all learn a bit about humanity. The friendships we make with our peers, and especially with our teachers, are priceless and serve as a major part of our Ties to Knowledge...

To Knowledge

To Values

It is in the Xaverian tradition that St. John's has always been dedicated to helping young men reach their full potential. While academic growth is very important, the faculty shares the belief that moral and spiritual growth are essential to becoming a happy and successful person. As a result, we grow into our own spirituality between September of our Freshman year and May of our Senior year. These are our

To Victory

*After the last bell at 2:18, many students head for the locker room to change for practice. These students have made the "Commitment to Excellence," and are part of a new community- a team. And whether they play on the Super 8 hockey team, the golf team, or the intramural softball team, they all play for the excitement and the love of the sport. Once the laces are tightened and the red and white uniforms are on, they become the renowned Pioneers. Although we love to win, we learn from our defeats and share our Ties to Victory...

TIES

Students have hobbies and activities that they love to participate in and St. John's students are no different. St. John's can oblige just about anyone's interests when it comes to extracurriculars because there are over 35 clubs and organizations to choose from. Why not watch a French play with the French Club? Or reach out to the community with the National Honor Society? Or argue U.S. health care policies with the Debate Team? Or be the next Al Pacino in the Drama Club? Just think: there's even the Yearbook Staff! We all need to blow off steam, but we want to enjoy ourselves while doing it. These are our Ties to Fun...

TIES Are Off

St. John's students engage in diversified activities at the conclusion of the school day. Some go to work, some go home, and a larger percentage participate in the school's extracurricular life. And after four years, when school is really over, the seniors go on to college. So when the last bell rings and the ties come off, do we lose everything we have gained from St. John's? No! That's the beautiful thing- we will bring everything we've obtained from St. John's wherever we go in life. Our spirituality, motivation, competitiveness, creativity, understanding, and heart will follow us wherever our paths lead. Our Ties are Off*, but not forgotten...*

A Dedication ...

With the opening of school year 1992-93, St. John's High School celebrated the twenty-fifth year of leadership of our Headmaster, Brother J. Conal Owens, C.F.X. This twenty-five year tenure is historic in the sense that no Xaverian Brother has ever served as a single school's Headmaster for such a period of time.

Brother Conal came to St. John's in 1965 as a teacher of senior religion and moderator of the Student Activities Council. In 1966 he became assistant to the Headmaster Brother Joseph Gerard, C.F.X. School year 1968-69 saw the beginning of what is now Brother Conal's twenty-five years as our fifteenth Headmaster.

These twenty-five years have been, to say the very least, remarkable. Political, societal, technological, economical, educational and theological changes abound. Leading a school through the difficult years of Vietnam, staying the course through periods of economic recession, posturing a faculty into readiness for the next century - these have been unwritten aspects of Brother Conal's job description.

The years of Brother Conal's service to St. John's High School have witnessed extensive growth and development. A school of 750 students in 1968 grew to what was an all time high of 1171 in 1982. In 1984 St. John's became an accredited member of the New England Association of Schools and Colleges Inc. Projects of beautification and expansion have altered and enhanced the St. John's campus. New programs in Alumni Relations, Admissions, Campus Ministry, Parents' Council, Advanced Placement courses in 13 subject areas are just a few highlights from a lengthy list of accomplishments. Ever conscious of his fiscal responsibilities, Brother Conal has maintained a financially solid and sound institution.

"The St. John's Family" is an expression which Brother Conal began using in the 1970's. All that the term "family" implies reflects Brother Conal's approach to his position. The "family" is extensive and inclusive - students, parents, staff, alumni and friends of St. John's.

Brother Conal is a man of the future, keenly conscious of the cherished past, but a man looking at tomorrow.

The St. John's Family has been blessed with Brother Conal's leadership. We thank God for this very special blessing.

The Year in Review

If the past year is any indication of the rest of the decade, the next few years are going to be extremely exciting and entertaining. Political events and the economy again took center stage and their aftermath presented the American people with a newly elected president and a recovering economy. Bill Clinton outlasted George Bush in the 1992 election and could exhale a sigh of relief after the long and tiresome campaign. The nation as a whole suffered through a recession which made us yearn for the prosperous 1980's.

Events overseas grasped the world's attention as well, through the ethnic cleansing in Bosnia, to the starvation in Somalia. United States troops were called on to ameliorate the living conditions in Somalia and air strikes in war torn Bosnia were and are being considered.

On the lighter side of the news, Hollywood supplied the public with many, shall we say, interesting movies. Spike Lee sparked yet another controversy with his movie, "Malcolm X", and "Wayne's World" clarified the definition of the word, Shwiiiing!

It was a depressing year in the sports world, the NBA lost two of its most successful players, Larry Bird and Kevin McHale to injuries which caused their retirements. The Olympics provided the entire world with magnificent competition, except for the Dream Team's journey to the gold medal, which could be summarized in two words "a Joke". America's team captured the Super Bowl and the Duke Blue Devils were finally dethroned as the kings of college basketball. The Toronto Blue Jay's won the World Series, and at least for now, the Canadians have bragging rights when it comes to America's pastime.

All in all, we lived through a pretty amazing year, one which will be awfully hard to forget.

Different Activities

Leadership Bound. ....

Seniors set the tone for the year. At the OakHurst Conference and Retreat Center on August 21 to 23 in Whitinsville, MA, seniors learned how to assist St. John's in carrying out its Christian Philosophy. The Christian Leadership Institute participants exercised the necessary skills to set the pace for school activities, community projects, and peer counseling to be utilized throughout the school year.

With a change of setting from Ashland to Whitinsville and a plethora of activities, ranging from task-oriented group sessions to a competitive game of volleyball, seniors learned to develop and expand their talents as Christian leaders within the school as well as the community at large. All the students agreed that this program was truly beneficial. A participant, Amrik J. Singh said, "The program gave me a better understanding of myself, my values, and my classmates." Also, the results of this three-day pilgrimage have influenced seniors to partake in community service. Senior Bob Audet concluded that, "the Christian Leadership Institute gave me a new perspective of my position in community service. I became more involved in leadership activities such as coordinating a food drive for the Friendly House of Worcester."

The joint program conducted by the Student Activities Council and the Campus Ministry Office is a truly growing and spiritual experience.

▲The Freshmen sample lunch after a morning of ice-breakers and meeting new people.

This year, "Big Brother Day" had a different twist. A few days before the opening of school, the Freshmen and Big Brothers met at Saint John's. The day began with a series of ice breakers that helped to get everyone a little better acquainted. The incoming students were then talked to by club moderators, a few faculty members and the athletic director. This gave the Freshmen a glimpse of what awaited them in a few days, when they arrived. Following the talks, the freshmen were split into small groups where the Big Brothers answered numerous questions. The questions ranged from "What's it like without any girls around?" and "Is the school really that big?" to "When do we eat lunch?" After the small groups, it was time to eat. Hamburgers, hot dogs and cookies made for a good lunch before heading outside to play football, basketball and whiffle ball. It was a great day for the Frosh, who got a good look at the campus and a feel for the school. Mr. Phillips referred to Freshmen Day as " ... a day of introduction to the St. John's adventure." The Freshmen found it helpful and informative and they knew at least a few guys on the first day as well as a few upperclassmen to help them out.

Ministerial Ties

Campus Ministry is primarily a form of pastoral ministry within an educational community that attempts to draw people, faculty, staff, administrators, students, and parents into responsible participation in the life, mission, and work of the church. It's threefold task is (1) to proclaim Jesus, (2) to build Christian community, and (3) to be of service within and without the school community.

According to Brother Jim Connolly, "the primary responsibility of the campus ministry director is to discover and call forth the ministerial talents and gifts of all those involved in the Saint John's community so that the faith community can continue to grow. Brother Jim's role as campus ministry director "is to organize, motivate, initiate progress, aid in enriching those already in place, and be a key pastoral person in the life of the school faith community". His duties are (1) direct and supervise retreat program on a class level (2) Coordinate a Christian Service program serving the Worcester area (3) develop peer ministry (4) plan and coordinate liturgical programs for the S.J. community (5) provide pastoral counseling and (6) give classroom presentations, especially relating to adolescence.

Some of the programs sponsored by the campus ministry office are class retreats, Peer Ministry, Eucharistic Ministry, a missionary trip for two juniors to Orangeburg, S.C., "Junior Year Stress", "Tasks of Adolescence", various food drives, and a daily in school morning prayer, to name a few. Brother Jim is always a very busy man, but he still finds time for those who need someone to talk to.

Brother Jim hopes that "as the campus ministry program at St. John's evolves it will aid all by providing a setting where all the segments of the Saint John's community might grow to full stature in Christ."

Scapino!

"Scapino" was this fall's Drama Club production. This adaptation of a Molière farce is a story of love, parents, and money. The con artist Scapino (Jim Wennerberg) helps two swooning, young couples — Ottavio and Giacinta (Craig Addams and Heather Robertson) and Leandro and Zerbinetta (Rich D'Elia and Maria Cobus) — stay together despite their fathers' — Argante (Jason Boghosian) and Geronte (Rob Steere) — wishes. Scapino is helped by the meek, chain-bearing, chicken-mutilating Sylvestro (Roger Dubuque). The scene was always livened up by a bum (Rob Dio), three waiters (Jon Acuff, Phil Powers, and James McNamara) and a waitress (Lauren Michalack). The story was brought together at the end by a slinky, suave, beautiful, hairy-legged woman (Chuck Sylvester) who was Giacinta's nurse. There were also special appearances by Long John Silver, Ho "pork fried rice and an egg roll" Mink, Colonel Howard Stevenson, and Sergeant John Cleese.

Thanks (as always) go to Messrs. Dolan and Coggins for their directoral abilities. Additional thanks to Neal McConnell (student director), Mark Galante (house manager), Matt Ford (set design), Chris Kristant (chief set painter), Denis Finnerty (lighting), Brent Vallee (props), Mike O'Bryant (sound coordinator), Carlo Morretti (live piano), and all others who helped with this show.

Over the past year, Wood Allen has been receiving mor press than Nixon did durin Watergate. Well, maybe that's a exaggeration! So the Drama Club's winter production roll around, and what do the loca Pacinos and Nicholsons choos to perform? None other than hilarious comedy by the legen himself, Woody Allen. And whil this show may not have given hi any large amounts of negativ publicity (we hope) it certainl highlighted his gift of creatin obnoxiously funny stage shows And funny it was ... Like "The Odd Couple," this show brough together three of St. John's mos renowned Drama vets. In fact Matt Shook, Mark Galante, and Jim Wennerberg made them- selves and the rest of the cas laugh in hysterics just as much as the audience. Four young women from Shrewsbury High School helped all the guys with their exceptional talents, and filled their roles perfectly. The Drama Club wishes to thank Heather Robertson, Maria Cobus, Lauren Michelak, and Alicia Manning for all of their contributions. "Don't Drink The Water" was upheld by a spectacular stage and lighting crews, and all who worked on the show or watched it were thrilled with the results.

On Our Way

For the twenty-seventh year, St. John's guys became entertainers in this year's Spring Spectacular, On Our Way. The gymnasium became a stage, the locker room and cafeteria became dressing rooms, and the gym lobby a box office as audiences roared through a roller coaster of laughter and tears, and song and dance.

This year, the theme involved time travel, and the cast and crew took the audience from Vaudevillian New York to Gangster-laden Chicago, and from the happenin' Jazz scenes of New Orleans to a small convent somewhere in the Swiss Alps, as they sang selections from Guys and Dolls, Wayne's World (!), The Sound of Music, and Sister Act.

Of course, none of this would have been possible without the efforts of our fine directors, headed by Brother Stephen Comeau. Newcomer Richard Monroe, along with Mike Gondek ('91) and Mr. Gregory taught the boys to sing, while Sheila Fucci led the dancers.

A well deserved "Congratulations" to all those students who made On Our Way the great success that it was.

S'Wonderful

Under the direction of Mr. Al Vaudreuil, this year's jazz ensemble again had a magnificent year. Band officers Jim Park (president), John Gordon (vice-president), and Joe Devlin (treasurer/secretary) helped lead the band to success this year. In addition the band benefitted from the assistance of Shelley Bard and Liz Heaton from NDA who were both "instrumental" to the ensemble's success.

Besides the annual Christmas and spring concerts that the band gave here at St. John's, the ensemble also performed in some local competitions. The Berklee Jazz Festival presented the ensemble with a plaque recognizing its fifth year of participation in the festival. (They also awarded Matt Athanasiou with a medal for his extraordinary playing during the performance.) During the annual BCBop competition, the band won a silver medal; and in the Central District Competition, they received a bronze medal. Unfortunately the UNH Competition was canceled this year. (Who will forget the 100+ inches of snow we had this winter!) Although the band had planned to participate in St. Anselm's first jazz festival, a scheduling conflict prevented attendance. The band, which only lost two senior musicians this year, anticipates a tremendous performance season next year.

A Renewed Commitment to Service

The Brother Campion Chapter of the National Honor Society showed a renewed commitment to service this year with the adoption of its first constitution. Members were active in a myriad of projects, from Walkathons to tutoring to serving meals at Dismas House. In an effort to increase its ties to the community, the chapter undertook new efforts such as the Food Bank for Friendly House in Worcester, involvement in the Worcester Children's Friend Society, and a telethon for the American Heart Association that raised over eighteen hundred dollars in two nights. The NHS continued its participation in the Very Special Arts and Easter Seals programs along with school service in the Mothers' Guild Auction, the Freshman Open House and Orientation, Junior Stress Night and the SRA Reading Lab. Under the new community service requirement, all members were asked to perform ten hours of service each semester, resulting in a dramatic increase in participation.

On April 4, the chapter held its annual banquet to induct new members and recognize the outstanding accomplishments of its present students. This year's ceremony was particularly special as it was dedicated to Brother J. Conal Owens, CFX, who celebrated twenty-five years as Headmaster. The speaker and recipient of the Distinguished Alumnus Award was Mr. Daniel Doyle, a noted basketball writer who has been extensively involved in international sports organizations to promote peace and understanding. Eight juniors were recognized for their success academically and in extracurricular activities with book awards, and nine seniors were recognized for their excellence in various academic disciplines.

With outstanding junior officers and a dedicated membership, the Brother Campion Chapter will continue to strive for excellence in the year 1993-94 and beyond.

The Royal Regatta- "A Propelling Experience"

The Annual Auction of Saint John's High School has always proven to be a splendid event and this year's "Royal Regatta" was no less spectacular. Strolling through the royally decorated corridors was like sailing down the Thames on a sunny afternoon. In the captain's dining room, a menu of prime rib with all of the trimmings provided a grand feast for our stately guests. Through the dedication and efforts of the Mother's Guild, the students, and the faculty, this year's twelfth annual auction once again provided participants with an atmosphere appropriate to the theme.

The renowned Paul Zekos, our auctioneer, took his position on the main deck to serve as coxswain for this annual fundraiser. As he voiced his commands to the audience, there were hardly any "hands-on-deck" as most of them were raised to bid on items such as autographed memorabilia, a Florida vacation, and the ever-so-popular personalized street sign. Again, the McGinnis family would not be outbid for this tribute to their namesake. The introduction of a "surprise package" raised intrigue throughout the crowd as Paul pursued a persistent bidder to the height of his suspense. The package, as it was revealed began with a portable telephone which in turn would be used to call the ten people who would be served hors d'oeuvres at the bidder's home before being chauffeured by limousines to a well-known restaurant to dine in elegance. The purchase proved to be a very worthy investment.

Brother Fahey offered his usual self-imposed humor to augment the delight of the crowd. His yearly incognito appearance (alias "Sister Fahey") an unwitting attempt to serve as auctioneer proved to be a highlight which added to the ultimate success of the evening.

Where's the Printer Cable ... ?

The Saint John's Model United Nations organization had yet another successful year of studying and debating international affairs, both at home and across the nation.

Topics ranging from AIDS and immigration to the crisis in Lebanon were discussed this year at the SJMUN weekly meetings down in the Manor house. Adam Taranto-Secretary General, RJ McGrail-Moderator, and Ricci Hall-Parliamentarian, managed the weekly sessions and monitored debate.

The first major event of the year was the annual SJMUN conference which took place in October. Close to fifteen High Schools attended this year's conference, and participated in six Security Council sessions, along with five INS meetings, which made the yearly gathering the largest to date. Dave Menard, the Secretary-General of the conference, directed the event extremely well, and used much of his free time over the past summer preparing for the conference. Most of the SJMUN members assisted in the smooth running of the conference as well.

The SJMUN ventured once again across the nation and participated in three national conferences. In December the SJ delegates went to Boston and took part in the Harvard MUN conference, at which they represented two nations, Uruguay and Ecuador, and were very successful at influencing resolutions which passed in each committee.

The SJMUN took off again in January to the windy city and participated in the Univ. of Chicago MUN conference, which was rated last year as the Number One High School MUN conference in the nation. SJ delegates were an extremely integral part of the conference, represented Russia and finished the weekend with numerous outstanding delegate and honorable mention awards. Seniors, Chuck Sylvester, Adam Taranto, RJ McGrail, Bret Stockdale, Kurt Powers, Steven Rodger and Dave Menard, all received awards for their efforts. Underclassmen were successful as well, which underscores the bright future of the SJMUN.

The SJMUN finished the year at the New York MUN conference, where SJ delegates were able to debate in actual chambers at the real United Nations.

Hopefully next year will be as enjoyable and victorious as this past year for all of the delegates. A special thanks to Mr. Novick and Mr. LaBorde, for without their patience and time, none of this is possible.

Ed Hanson and the Math Team Take Honors

The Varsity Math Team completed a successful 1992-1993 season in strong fashion with a second place finish at the State Math Meet (for the third year in a row) and a third place finish at the New England Math Meet. A six-person team consisting of seniors Ed Hanson, Dave Owens and Tom Cecil, junior Sameer Bhalotra and sophomores Tom Buckingham and Brian Riley represented St. John's at both meets. At the State Meet, held on April 7th at Apponequet Regional High School, St. John's was edged out by Brighton High School. Sameer Bhalotra earned high scoring honors at the meet. On May 1st at Canton, St. John's finished ahead of every other team from Massachusetts in Medium School Division at the New England Meet, but was unable to repeat as Champions. Ed Hanson was alone among over 350 competitors with a perfect score at the meet. Though the team was disappointed, it is already looking ahead to next year for a chance to come back. (Is there another Ed Hanson looming in the math team's future?)

St. John's again took a number of team honors during the course of the year. Among them was a second place finish at the Annual WPI Mathematics Competition (out of 80 schools), a first place showing in Worcester County in the New England Mathematics League contests (a correspondence league), and the league championship (for the third year in a row and eighth time in the last ten years) of the Worcester County Math League. In addition, the team earned recognition for its outstanding performance on the American High School Mathematics Exam, finishing in eighth place among all schools in New England and Pennsylvania.

Individual honors also accrued to many members of the team, but especially to Ed Hanson who had an outstanding year. He became the first student from St. John's and perhaps the first from Worcester County to qualify for the third level (USAMO) of the national mathematics exam. Ed's performance placed him among the top 50 students from across the nation, out of an initial pool of over 400,000 top math students!! This followed his perfect score and first place finish on the first level of the Massachusetts State Olympiad. In addition, Ed was High Scorer as well as the Most Valuable Mathlete from the Worcester County Math League for which he was honored by the Massachusetts Mathematics League at its annual Math Day sponsored by Raytheon Corporation. Ed was also named one of only five winners of a prestigious 1993 Association of Teachers of Mathematics in Massachusetts (ATMIM) Scholarship Achievement Award. In the spring of the year, Ed finished in the top ten in the state on the second level of the Massachusetts Olympiad (for which he received both a medal and a monetary prize) and competed for and won a nationally recognized mathematics scholarship at Washington University in St. Louis. Needless to say this fall will find Ed in St. Louis and St. John's wondering again if another Ed Hanson is looming in the math team's future.

Ed Hanson was not the only member of the team to earn special recognition. Sameer Bhalotra, Tom Buckingham, David Owens and Brian Riley all received High Scoring honors from the Worcester County Math League. These five students will also represent St. John's as members of the Western Massachusetts All-Star team which will compete in the American Regions Mathematics League Meet at Penn State on June 5th. Sameer, like Ed, was a finalist in the State Olympiad, finished in 30th place for the second level examination, and, along with Tom Cecil and senior Jeff Cerny, earned an individual award for the National Examination. Tom Buckingham received Honorable Mention on both the State and National competitions. With a strong nucleus returning in the fall, the future continues to look bright for the Varsity Math Team under the direction of Mr. Stephen Gregory.

The freshman team finished the year in second place in Division A, after losing to a strong team from Hudson High School at the final meet of the year. The team showed considerable improvement as the year progressed and Veeral Shah received a High Scoring award for his performance. The coach of the freshman team is Mr. Gerry Taylor.

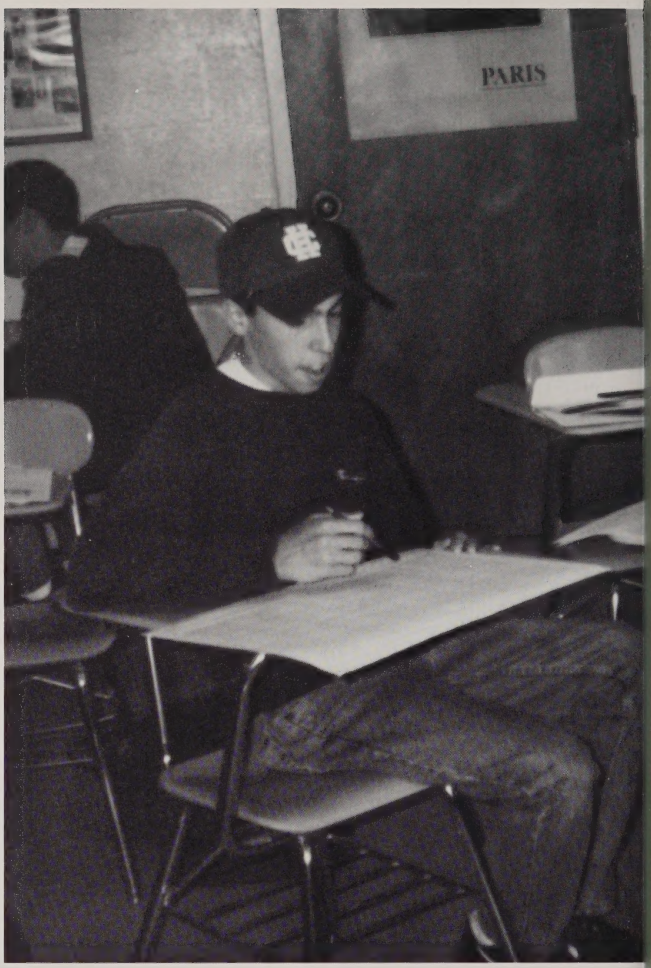
No Excuses

The yearbook staff got off to a late start on layouts this year for various reasons and as a result the phrase "no excuses" became the motto. In an effort to finish the book before the end of school, moderators Mr. Gillis and Br. Furlong decided to crack down and accept no excuses for meetings missed or work not completed on time.

Each year the St. John's yearbook staff struggles to put together a book which surpasses the high quality of books published in previous years. This year was no exception. During the months of November and December the staff was brainstorming for a theme to the book. The theme of the book is very important because everything in the yearbook revolves around it. It brings continuity to the book through the visual images used, the cover, the format, and the text. As you know this year's theme is Different Ties. It is the hope of the staff that this year's book will portray the different people, different ideas, different interests, and different personalities that bring life to the St. John's Community.



Mr. Gillis and other members of the yearbook staff enjoy their day away from school during a yearbook conference.

Juniors Courtland Rae and Chris Tamulis try to decide where to place pictures on their layout sheet.

S.J. Students Do Mission Work

By Mark Zumwalt '96

For the fourth year in a row, two juniors from St. John's made a trip to Orangeburg County, South Carolina, where they stayed with the Xaverian Brothers at the Brother's residence. The trip familiarized the students with the brothers' "home mission work."

The annual trip to Orangeburg first originated when Brother Jim Connolly, CFX came to St. John's as Campus Minister. Because of Brother Jim's previous four year experience at Orangeburg, Brother Conal asked him if it would be possible and worthwhile to send some students there to help out and a tradition was born. A lottery system was used to select the two students.

This year, Kent Holloway and Kevin Rooney left on Friday, February 12 and returned on Saturday, February 20. The teachers at Holy Trinity School look forward to the coming of the two students every year. The people that they help out are always friendly and graciously accept what is done to help them. This annual trip is funded by the Campus Ministry and underwritten by S.A.C. Last year Brother Tom Pearson went to Orangeburg, while this year Brother Connolly went.

In South Carolina, Kent Holloway and Kevin Rooney helped tutor the students at the school there in various subjects. The children ranged from the preschool level all the way up to the eighth grade. It is 98% black and primarily non-Catholic. When Kent and Kevin arrived from St. John's, the students viewed them as role models because their teachers were mostly female. They also assisted with Cooperative Church Ministries of Orangeburg, an outreach program to the poor and needy.

For Kent a most memorable activity of the entire trip occurred on the last day when he and Kevin attended a basketball game in an all white neighborhood. During the game the only black player on the court was fouled repeatedly without any calls against the offending player. Once, the foul was so flagrant that the black player ended up on the floor and was kicked in the face. When he retaliated by punching his opponent in the head, the crowd turned into a mob yelling racial obscenities at the black player. When both St. John's students attempted to defend this boy verbally, they themselves almost got into a fight. This experience taught Kent that racism and violence are still major problems in today's society. A more positive learning experience came as Kent and Kevin tutored Holy Trinity students in reading and math.

Any present sophomore willing to learn more about himself and to help others while ministering to the missionary church should consider applying for this trip next year. See Brother Jim Connolly for more details.

Celtics: On The Rebound?

by Andy Cipro '94

The Boston Celtics have recently improved their record to above the .500 level after beginning the season at a dismal 2-9 record. They have shown improved play all around, especially by forwards Xavier McDaniel, Alaa Adelnaby, Lorrenzo Williams, and the seemingly revitalized Kevin McHale. The Celts are improving, not only in their play, but in their attitudes. For the first time this season, they seem to be playing like a team.

Captain Reggie Lewis has kept up his consistent play, in leading the Celtics to their improved record. His 20+ points per game average is one of the main factors in the team's resurgence. The Chief, center Robert Parish, has been a steady competitor and has also helped to lead the Celtics in their sudden surge. Dee Brown is becoming a steady point guard and has the ability to control the team's offense. Sherman Douglas has been a strong back up to Dee since he returned from his 4-day "vacation." The unsung hero of this team has been Joe Kleine. Joe has limited ability, yet continually exceeds his potential whenever he plays. No matter how many points down, you can be sure that Joe Kleine is giving his all.

Even after all these improvements, one must acknowledge the decline of the Celtics' dynasty without The Legend, Larry Bird.

Because of the age factor with Parish and McHale, the Celtics need a big man in this year's upcoming draft. The Celts should somehow trade up for a lottery pick and choose Rodney Rodgers out of Wake Forest. That is, if he comes out of school a year early. Dave Gavitt cannot go wrong with this pick. Another possible pick is the sleeper for this draft: Charles Outlaw, a power forward out of the University of Houston. Outlaw is a six foot, eight inch power-house. He possesses strong and powerful moves under the hoop and has the added quality of great quickness in the open court. Without a young big man, this team is at best a sixth seed in the Eastern Conference Playoffs.

A FEW GOOD MEN ★★★★★

This intense courtroom drama features some of the best acting and writing that I've seen in a long time. Tom Cruise plays a Yoo-Hoo-drinking, hot shot Naval attorney who is tapped to defend two soldiers accused of murder. As he investigates, he discovers a darker and less glorious side to the Navy. Jack Nicholson does his best Jack Nicholson impression as the defiant superior officer of the accused.

De Tout Mon Coeur

« Je t'adore »
Elle lui dit
Mais on peut voir
Qu'elle ne l'aime pas
Et elle veut dire
« Je te déteste,
De tout mon coeur. »
L'oiseau-lyre chante
Et chante, et chante, et chante
De sa cage fermeé
Il chante du chagrin
La chanson de l' esclavage
Et on peut voir
Qu'll cherche sa liberté
De tout son coeur.
« Je te déteste! »
Elle lui dit
Un sourire aux lèvres
« Je suis esclave ici! »
« Ne le dis jamais plus »
Il la bat
Et on peut voir
Qu'il veut le faire
De tout son coeur
La cage s'ouvre
L'oiseau est libre
Il chante heureusement
Le chant de sa liberté
Il prend sa fuite
Et vole, et vole et vole
Chantant
De tout son coeur.
Elle lui ricane
Et ouvre le tiroir
« Jamais plus l'esclavage »
Elle sort le pistolet,
Elle le tue
Et avant le coup de feu final
On peut entendre
A mi-voix
« Je ne t'ai jamais aimé
De tout mon coeur »

The Sands Of Time

So as the sands of time fall and love is lost and found we hear our loved ones only call because our hearts are bound

So swiftly as a gentle breeze do days and nights go by that they make us want to seize our dreams and pass away the time

So listen closely to the hearts of friends which you hold dear until the day we make the start and shed our youthful fears

The State Champion S.J. Debate Team

Director of debate Br. Tom Morrissey and the St. John's debate team capped off an extremely successful year by winning the State Tournament for the second time in six years. The tournament was held in March at Catholic Memorial High School. Seniors Martin Boudreau and Vu Nguyen won on the varsity level, and sophomores Anthony DiBenedetto and Alex Kenia won on the J.V. level. They argued the National Debate Resolution: That the U.S. Government should reduce worldwide pollution through its aid and/or trade policies.

Boudreau and Brian Prestes, another senior, won two other major tournaments at the Manchester (Mass) Invitational and at the Georgetown Day Invitational in Washington, D.C., while they lost in the finals of the Lexington High School Tournament. The sub-varsity team won the Lexington Tournament with the team of junior Kurt Hanson and DiBenedetto coming in first and Kenia and freshman Nathaniel Lalone finishing second. At the Harvard Invitational Debate tournament in March, both varsity teams, senior Chris Zieminski with Vu Nguyen and Martin Boudreau with Brian Prestes, finished in the top sixteen out of one hundred forty teams from all over the U.S. At graduation Martin Boudreau received the Mortimer Buckley Award for excellence in forensics. This is the highest award given out for public speaking.

The prospects for the 93-94 team are very good. Several members of the sub-varsity team will be attending summer debate institutes. Hanson and Kenia will go to American University in Washington, D.C. Sophomore Trevor Thompson and freshman Jim Couture will attend either Iowa or Wake Forest. Finally DiBenedetto and sophomore Ethan Rider will be going to the University of Michigan. The National Debate Resolution for next year is: That the federal government should guarantee comprehensive national health insurance to all U.S. citizens.

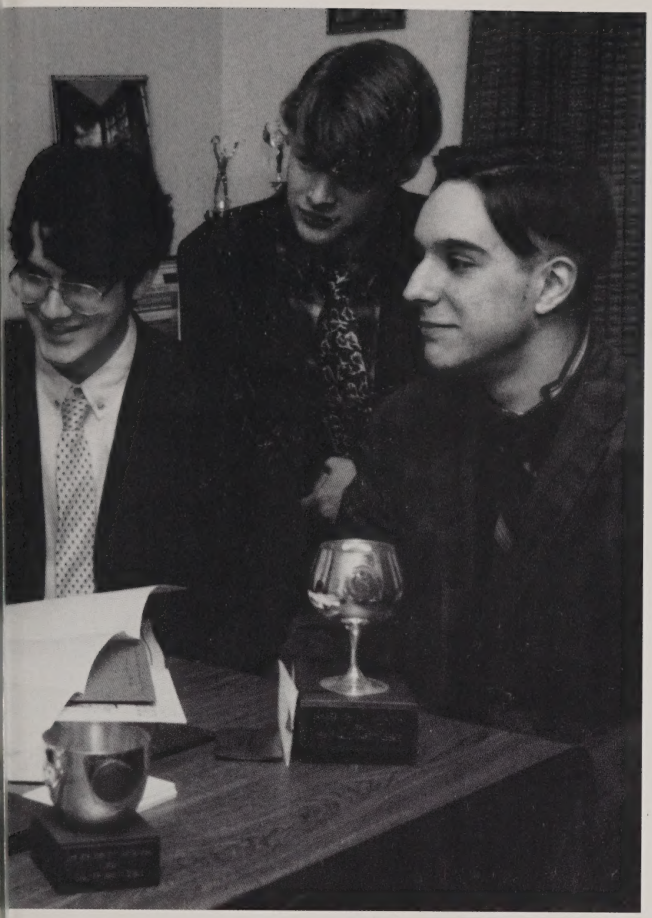
Sophomores Trevor Thompson and Ethan Rider study their arguments.



Seniors Vu Nguyen, Martin Boudreau, Chris Zieminski, and Brian Prestes work on strategy with Br. Morrissey.

A Little Help From the Pros

The third annual Worcester County Young Writers' Conference took place on Saturday and Sunday, November 14th and 15th, in the St. John's Manor House. The Young Writers' Conference was open to all sophomores, juniors and seniors who were interested. This year, the Conference was sponsored by St. John's High School, the Massachusetts Council of Teachers of English, and the Norton Company Foundation.

Although the turnout for this year's Young Writers' Conference was not as high as last year's, over five dozen aspiring authors attended the event. During the course of the two days, the writers were divided into "core" groups, where they received constructive criticism and inspiration from professional writers. Jack O'Connell, the author of Box Nine, gave the opening reading at the Conference. Another writer, John Hogden, took his group out of doors for hands on training about descriptive writing. On the second day of the Conference, Sunday, the highlight of the weekend appeared. This was Samuel Pickering, the inspiration for John Keating, the character played by Robin Williams in the film Dead Poets Society. Mr. Keating read several of his satirical essays concerning human nature and the daily life of an American. In between each essay, he stressed the importance of a scrutinizing eye in writing.

At the close of the Worcester County Young Writers' Conference, Mr. Pickering finished his essays and the young writers thanked the professionals and left with a refined knowledge of writing. St. John's junior Jeremy O'Brien said of the Conference, "(The Conference was) a masterpiece of unrivaled literary genius in the twentieth century." S.J. sophomore Colin Dodds added, "One of the more enjoyable activities I've done...the 'core' groups really helped... an extremely supportive environment." Moderators Mr. Dave Vilandre and Mr. Michael Novick felt that the 1992 Young Writers' Conference was even more successful than its predecessors.

Leadership

Under the capable leadership of President George Kean, Vice President Jeffrey Perras, Activities Coordinator Matthew Shook, Treasurer Thomas Cecil, Secretary Aaron Hoffman, Parlimentarian Matthew Szklarz and Publicity Director Lee Blanchette the Student Activities Council completed another productive and successful year. Once again the council was aided and guided by moderators Mr. Jay Coggins and Mr. Anthony O'Donnell.

S.A.C. involvement began over the summer months with all officers taking part in the Leadership Institute. Even before classes started in September the council helped organize the staff Big Brother Day with the help of Campus Ministry and Guidance. Throughout the school year S.A.C. continued to provide leadership and service to the St. John's community and the greater Worchester community. Activities such as the American Red Cross Blood Drive, the Thanksgiving and Lenten Food Drives, the Christmas Clothing Drive, many school and class dances were among the different services provided by S.A.C.

In May the school wide election produced a new Student Activities Council: Neal McConnell, President; Michael Williams, Vice President; Brian McGurl, Activities Coordinator; Marc Spellane, Treasurer; Mark McCormack, Parliamentarian; George Reidy, Secretary; and Matthew Tomaiolo, Publicity Director. With their leadership and the continued strong efforts of an involved student body the future of leadership and service to St. John's and the community appears promising.

The Academic Decathlon Team Qualified for its second Massachusett State Final held in March of this year. Each team member must write an essay, deliver a speech, give an interview, and take exams in seven academic areas: Science, Mathematics, Art & Music, Economics, Geography, Language & Literature, and Social Studies. Each year the theme of the competition and the Super Quiz differs—this year's theme was the Pacific Rim Region and the Super Quiz was on thirty multicultural achievers, prominent men and women of all races from all over the globe. Fourteen members of our faculty participated as subject coaches or as support staff.

The team finished seventh in the State Final; many members earned individual honors. Senior team members include: Matt Ford, Tom Ford, Mike Wood, Steve Rodger, Ed Hanson, Rich Colby, Ronaldo Garces, Mikel Strom, D.J. Gentile, and John Baudin. Alternates were Seniors Diederik Basch, De Nguyen, and Juniors Dan Gondek, Chris Massicotte, and Khoa Nguyen. Mrs. Carol Fredette and Mrs. Elizabeth Kavanagh coach the team.

In preliminary competitions, medals received include: Matt Ford—Silver, Fine Arts; Rich Colby—Bronze, Mathematics; Ed Hanson—Gold, Mathematics, and Bronze, Science; Tom Ford—Bronze, Science; Chris Massicotte—Gold, Economics.

In the State meet, these Seniors earned medals: Ed Hanson—Gold and a perfect score in Mathematics; Steve Rodger—Silver, Speech, and Bronze, Fine Arts; Tom Ford, Bronze, Interview. The Coaches' Medal for outstanding contribution to the team was awarded to Mike Wood.

"What's Black And White And Red All Over?"

This riddle was solved on May 7th at the St. John's Junior Prom. The prom floor was decorated by handsome, tux-filled Pioneers and their dazzling dates. The festivities began as J.T. Kelley, Kevin Carmody, Matt Ceppetelli and their entourages arrived. The Pioneer men continued the night with full exhilaration by exciting their dates with some gyrating on the dance floor and some B-bopping moves. Oh, but it didn't end there! The night was illuminated with magical lights and pictures by Francis "Skip" Doyle. Hold on... it hasn't ended yet. The food was magnificent and scoffed up hungrily by those big voracious Pioneers. It was soo good, in fact, that it was not uncommon to see these "gentlemen" finish off their dates' plates as well.

Finally the night came to a close as the lights were once again turned down and the prom theme song, "In Your Eyes," was played for the last time.

The entire evening, thanks to the class officers and Mr. Danna and Mr. Vilandre, was one to be remembered. Everything from picture taking and dancing to the post-prom party outside in the parking lot will never be forgotten.

Sophly Swaying

The sophomore semi-formal was held once again in the school cafeteria, disguised as a dance hall. Unlike the freshman semi-formal the year before, an actual meal was served rather than pizza. It was quiet at first, but soon the ice was broken, and the action began. Not only did the guys and their dates dance, but they frequently took breaks to have a refreshing drink and to relax. When the night was over, the class president, Ira Hoffman, thanked all who attended. Once again, everyone enjoyed the evening.

Tradition of Excellence

Late in the month of August, while the halls were silent and the lockers empty, a group of young men joined to dedicate themselves to the Pioneer Football Program. Despite having the most challenging schedule in Central Massachusetts, the upcoming season still looked bright with scrimmage victories against Algonquin, Leonminster, and Eastern Mass. Division I Superbowl Champions, Brockton. Led by a large group of seniors, the Pioneers began their season.

After a season opening overtime loss to Catholic Memorial, the Pioneers rallied back with back to back wins over Holy Name and Doherty to bring the team to a 2-1 record. After the Holy Name game senior running back J.R. Thomas said, "It feels great to get that first win. The line opened up some big holes and they deserve all the credit." The Pioneers then went into the game that would tell the tale of how the rest of their season would go. They were to face number one ranked Xaverian who boasted a powerful running game. At halftime the score was 10-0 in favor of the Hawks. The Pioneers set the tone with defense in the second half. Mike Vasquez and Joe Abasciano made big plays that stopped two big Xaverian drives. The final score was 31-0. Coach Tony Wood said, "I am very pleased with the way we played, we didn't give up. Everyone gave it their all. You put a game like this behind you and go back to work." The team lost its next outing against Chelmsford before bouncing back and winning back to back games over Milford and cross town rival Shrewsbury. After his 88 yard kickoff return against Shrewsbury, Matt Shook said, "The blockers waited until I was up to them and then opened a hole for me. I owe that touchdown to my blockers." The Pioneers came up short in two close games against St. John's Prep and B.C. High. The '92 Pioneers' season ended with a loss to St. Peter Marian on a rainy Thanksgiving Day.

Many players from the '92 squad were named to the CMC All-Star team. The players were, captain Chris Coleman, seniors Rob Coady, J.R. Thomas, Matt Shook, Mike Vasquez, Evan Thomas, juniors Keith Blanchette, Rob Carney, Mike Williams, and Joe Abasciano. Senior tackle Brian Duncan was also a CMC All-Star along with being named honorary captain of the Telegram and Gazette All-Stars. He will play in the Shriner's all-star game where he will represent the Pioneers.

The future of Pioneer Football looks bright with the J.V. and Freshman teams both having winning seasons. Next year's team will have a strong group of juniors and seniors. Their key to victory will be to play the St. John's special blend of hard-hitting and spirited football. The challenge for next year's team is to have a winning season and to bring back the CMC and Superbowl championships to St. John's.

Carpe Diem

Right from the start of the 1992 St. John's soccer season the team looked to be something special. Coach Brian Foley described the team as one of "intensity, enthusiasm, and self motivation that was evident from the first double session on a warm August day to the bitter cold end at the hands of Springfield Cathedral in the State Semi-finals." Along the journey of the season, the team compiled an 18-2-1 record and won victories in the Central Mass. Conference, and the District E championship by defeating Wachusett 3-0. The JV and Freshmen teams led by Coaches O'Donnell and Morin also contributed very impressive seasons by finishing with records of 13-1 and 6-6-2.

Also this year's team was a true team of friendship all did become great friends, showing this were the pasta parties at the Mignogna's house and by the "fun days" at practice. Several mottos that the team had throughout the season were, "carpe diem" or seize the moment, and the first and second half cheers of "Seek and destroy," and "Shut em down." These cheers helped to dictate the way the team played on the field. The theme of seizing the moment played a key role in that it made the team look only at the game it was playing and not to look at what had happened before or what was to happen in the future. Overall the team by far exhibited great skill on the field, and great friendship off the field.

Unique also to this year's team was the distinct captains policy. This year's captain was senior Chris White, and his co-captains throughout were the other ten seniors on the squad. Many of the team's players were honored with regional awards; Chris White, and juniors Brendan Army and Chris Girardi all received the Central Mass All-Star award; Lou Mignogna received District E MVP; an John Paulson received All New England, and the T&G All-Star awards. Other standout seniors were Mark Perry, Aaron Hoffman, Rich Dengelegi, Greg Swartz, Brendan Leary, Jeff Cerny, and Jeff Perras along with a supportive cast of juniors and sophomores, who all helped to make the team something special to watch in both passing and scoring.

After a very successful year for the St. John's soccer team, all that can be done is to look to the future. All of the senior players, who are all capable of playing Division 1, will go on to their respective colleges. As for next year's team there is much new optimism with the new captains Brendan Army and Chris Girardi; next year's team can only hope to do as well as this year's has done.

Running Away With It

The 1992 varsity cross-country team, coached by Mr. Raul Laborde, ran away with yet another successful season. Despite a slow start with their first loss since 1987 to Boston College High, they quickly recovered to win the remainder of their dual meets. Big wins for the team came in such meets as the Wickham Park Invitational and the Wachusett Invitational. They also ran well grabbing a second place finish in the Bay State Invitational. After a great regular season, the team was up to the challenge of the District Championships. Led by senior co-captains Eric Burns and Michael McGuirk the team of senior Ben Gilmore, juniors Roy Sevigny, Brian Chabbot, and Joe Barrel, and sophomore Brendan Murphy won the championship for the ninth year in a row. This first place finish continued the cross-country dynasty established by their predecessors of the previous eighth years and qualified them for the State Championship, in which they placed fourth.

This star-studded varsity team was backed up by an excellent junior varsity team. This young team of mostly sophomores and juniors was very strong, and they proved so at the Middlesex Invitational by capturing first place. They will no doubt be excellent runners in the future to carry on the Saint John's tradition.

The freshman team was successful throughout the season as well. Headed by their coach Br. Tom Pearson, this group of young runners was a dominant team on the state level. Michael Parker and Sean Murphy led the team to big wins at the Bay State Invitational and the Wickham Park Invitational.

Eight Guys in a Boat (with Oars)

This fall the crew team had their best season since the beginning of rowing at Saint John's. They had a spectacular season, winning the Textile Regatta and finishing second in the Head of the Conneticut, but the peak of the season was being the fastest Massachusetts eight man shell in the prestigious Head of the Charles in Boston. John Ermilio, John Deedy, Steve Davis and Dave Fulco coached them through this tremendous season. Coach Deedy was ecstatic at the Thanksgiving Rally praising the drive of his athletes and their continual hard work. Unfortunately Coach Deedy will be moving on to coach at W.P.I.

The Textile Regatta was the first race of the season, and the first five boats headed up to the race and returned victorious. Saint John's swept the top four places in the race. The team had high morale and had high expectations for the rest of the season. The season did not fall short of their expectations in any sense; at the Connecticut the varsity took second place, another race, another medal.

The Head of the Charles in Boston was to be the sweetest victory of all. Only the varsity went; and even though SJ had never placed in the top three before, the coaches and the team thought they had an excellent chance this year. They rowed a spectacular race, with a time of 16:05 making them the fastest boat from all of Massachusetts and earning them another award for their already heavily laden necks. Victory was worth all the hard work and the major commitment that the season requires, from the practices in August to the pre- dawn practices in the frigid morning air.

At the end of the fall season the school purchased new hatchet oars for the varsity and the team moved into the new boathouse, The Donahue Rowing Center, on the Shrewsbury side of the lake. Coach Deedy summed up this season best with a single word - superb.

Flying High

The St. John's varsity basketball team, coached by Robert Foley Sr., had one of its best seasons ever. The final record was 22 wins and 3 losses. Among the season's highlights were the District playoff wins over Doherty and Milford, plus an exciting come from behind win over Fitchburg before a packed house at WPI in the District Final. The Pioneers went on to defeat Holyoke in the State-Semifinal at the Springfield Civic Center. In the State Final at the Worcester Centrum the Pioneers played in front of a crowd of 9,000 basketball fanatics. St. John's in the last second of the game came up three points short and lost to New Bedford 70-67.

The Pioneers also had great success during their regular season. The team won the Central Mass Conference Championship by going undefeated (6-0) in league play. The team was led by senior co-captains, Michael Shannon and Todd Marrone. "Their leadership and unselfish play has lead to one big victory after another," said Coach Foley. Joining the co-captains on the starting team were senior forward, Andy Murphy; junior center, John Kerr; and sophomore guard, Jim Frew. The Pioneers talent filled bench was comprised of seniors- Lou Mignona, and James Pinzino; juniors- Brendan Army, Matt Avis, Denis Cleary, John Harvey and Matt Szklarz; sophomore- Steve Warner; and freshmen- Jon Taylor and Marcus Teixeira.

The '92-'93 Pioneers basketball team was dedicated and worked very hard all season long. The players and their fans were very proud of the team's accomplishments.

The "Dream Team"

Expectations were high this season for the Pioneers after proving the critics wrong last year by winning Districts and playing in the Boston Garden for the State Championship title. Under the guidance and leadership of the seven remaining seniors and the return of nine other varsity members it seemed as though another chance for a State Crown was inevitable. However, the goals set for this 1992-1993 season and accomplishments that were achieved sent a shocking scream throughout the state.

Having been dominated last year by Divison 1 Eastern Mass. teams, the Pioneers were looking for a little pay back this season. Revenge was sweet as St. John's skated to a 7-0-1 record against the big guns of Eastern Mass. The apex and turning point of the regular season came against two of the premier teams in all hockey, B.C. High and Matignon. In front of capacity crowds, the Pioneers skated to two victories in two of the most hyped games of the year beating B.C. High 2-1 with second left to play and Matignon 6-3. These wins were only a stepping stone to a much bigger prize that was soon to follow.

Finishing the season with an astonishing, undefeated 19-0-1 record, rumors were lingering about a possible spot in the Super Eight Tournament, the premier tournament in all of high school hockey. However, being a Central Mass. team and belonging to Division 2 St. John's chances seemed slim. The process and selection for the tourney teams was long and tedious, but finally the notice came through that, in fact, the Pioneers had been selected to compete for the bragging rights for "the best team in the state."

After all eight teams were picked and the anxieties of waiting to find out whether or not they would be invited were over, it was time for the Pioneers to head to Boston and make some noise.

Seeded 6th, St. John's first game in the double elimination tournament was against Archbishop Williams. The Pioneers quickly jumped out to a 1-0 lead, but as the game progressed, Archies came back to win it 4-2. With one lose under their belt, it was a do or die situation for the Pioneers. In the second round St. John's faced Burlington who also had lost previously. The game was fast paced and a battle down to the end. At the end of regulation the score was tied 3-3. In overtime St. John's won when senior co-captain Cory Beaulac scored the winning goal.

The Pioneers went up against Arlington in the third round at the Kelley Arena at Boston College. St. John's, after coming off a tremendous victory, skated to a 5-1 win over the Spy Ponders. St. John's was into the Final Four.

Only four teams, Catholic Memorial, Medford, Archbishop Williams, and St. John's, remained. At the Boston Garden, the Pioneers looked for revenge as they again faced Archbishop Williams. Although St. John's fought hard, they never seemed to get the brakes and ended up losing by a score of 5-1.

Although losing in the Final Four, the teams' season ended on a positive note. They finished with an impressive 21-2-1 record and were ranked 4th in the state and 13th in the country. Together, they surpassed all expectations by advancing to the highest level of competition and were extremely successful against these big teams. Because of their hard work, dedication and success, the St. John's Pioneers will enter into Division 1 in 1993-1994 becoming, in their own rights, one of the best teams in all of high school hockey.

Indoor Track

This winter, the indoor track team under coaches Donohue, Masserelli, and Brother Pearson, had another successful season. Practicing was difficult due to the large amount of snow, so the team had to practice in the parking lot. The tough workouts combined with the harsh weather to make practices grueling. These practices produced a fast and healthy group of runners for Saint John's, and they proceeded to be undefeated through out the season. They had big wins at South High and Marlboro, where they dominated almost every event. Head coach Donahue was very pleased with the team after their undefeated season, which made for a long time since Saint John's has lost an indoor meet.

District Champs

The Pioneers earned their first District E, Division I baseball title since 1976 by beating defending champ Holy Name, 3-2 in 10 innings on June 12 at Fitton Field.

Jim O'Brien threw a 6-hitter, striking out 12, while Todd Marone drove in Jamie Pinzino with the winning run.

With the District title in hand it was off to the state semifinals to face Western Mass. champion Northampton. However, St. John's terrific year (20-4) ended on June 15 as Northampton beat the Pioneers, 7-6. But as Coach White said following the loss, "I only hope what happened today won't dominate our memories of this season - we've had a terrific year."

The expectation was that the '93 team would be excellent. The Pioneers did not disappoint, rebounding from losses in the first two games in the season to capture the Central Mass Conference Championship and the Central District Division I Championship with a 20-3 record.

The pitching staff was led by seniors Jim O'Brien, J.R. Thomas and junior Matt Szklarz. Catcher and Captain Matt Wetherall and seniors infielders Jon Cahalane, Bill O'Brien and Todd Marone and sophomore first-baseman Jim Frew provided steady defense. The slugging of Bill O'Brien and J.R.Thomas helped produce a spectacular offense.

The contribution of underclassmen on the Varsity, the success of Coach Brian Thomas' JV team, and of Coach Jerry Coggins' Freshmen, gives great confidence that future Pioneer baseball teams will continue to carry on the St. John's tradition.

CMC Champs

The St. John's tennis team completed another successful year, finishing with a record of 16-3. The wins included two big regular season wins over eventual District finalists Algonquin and Doherty. The record was also good enough to capture the Central Mass Conference Title. The team entered the District tournament as the second seed, and lost to eventual champion Doherty High in the quarter finals, despite a great team effort.

Members of the team had a fine year on a personal level. In the Marlboro District Individual Tournament, seniors Kurt Powers and De Nguyen were the second seed in doubles, and senior Ronaldo Garces the fifth seed in singles. At the tournament senior Pioneer Award Winner, Stephen Rodger, sophomore Tom Donovan and the tandem of Kurt and De all advanced in the draw. Ronaldo Garces reached the quarter finals in singles, as did senior Steven Dewolf and sophomore Chad Pimental in doubles. The following were named CMC All-Stars: in singles; Ronaldo Garces, Tom Donovan, and Stephen Rodger, and in doubles; Kurt Powers, De Nguyen, Steven Dewolf, juniors Khoa Nguyen and Chad Pimental - sophomores Scott Bonneau and Chris Neff were also given honorable mention honors.

Next year four out of seven starters from the 1993 season return and the team hopes they will recapture the elusive team district title.

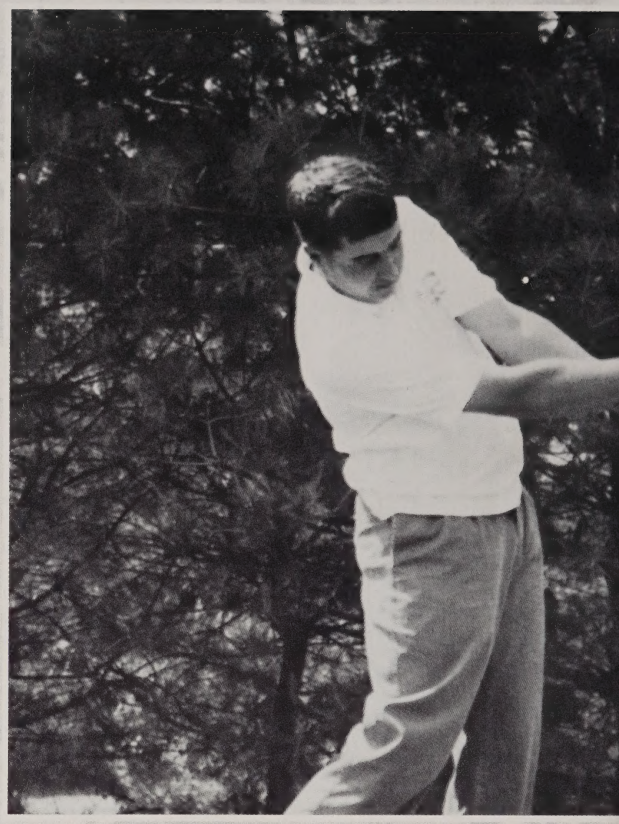
Outside Courses



The 1993 Golf Team added a number of new players to its roster. While not as experienced a team as those of the past, the Pioneers achieved a 17 - 1 regular season record and once again captured the CMC Championship. Junior (Co-Captain) Eric Trottier, sophomore Ben Delman, junior Phil Stefanides, and seniors Rich D'Elia (Co-Captain), Scott Sheehy, and Lou Mignogna provided veteran leadership for this year's squad. As first year Varsity golfers, senior Jim Kaminski, and juniors A.J. Andreoli, Jeff Hathaway, Joe Hulyk, and Paul Carilo added depth and contributed to many important victories.

During the regular season, the Pioneers defeated powerful and tournament bound Doherty and Wachusett, two of their perennial rivals. Their only loss was to Wachusett mid way through the year. Rebounding from that loss, SJ finished the year by winning ten in a row.

Individual honors went to Eric Trotter, Den Delman, and Scott Sheehy, who were chosen as CMC All-Stars.

While finishing only fourth in the team Districts this year, the Pioneers can look back on this past season with pride in their regular season accomplishments. With the experience they gained this year and with the addition of some talented JV golfers under the able direction of Mr. Taylor, the Pioneers look with confidence to the 1994 season.

Spring Thaw

This spring, after a late start because of the cold winter and thick ice on Lake Quinsigamond, the crew team was out practicing. After a long winter of indoor workouts and strength training, the rowers were glad to get back on the water. Before they could get on the water though they had to break the ice. Launches manned by people with ice - bashers were sent out each morning before the boats.

Saint John's destroyed all opposition at the Quinsigamond Cup races, where their first three boats swept the first three positions. This was their first cup victory since 1984, and both the coach and the crew were pleased by the victory. The team also made a trip to Stotesbury in Philadelphia, and a trip to the Hudson River in Poughkeepsie. Unfortunately, they did not fare well there and returned without victory.

At the New England races, victory was bitter. The varsity missed the Grand Finals by two tenths of a second, advancing only to the Petites' Round where they would come in first. Overall, Head Coach John Ermilio, and assistant coaches Pat Creedon, Steve Davis and Dave Fulco were pleased.

At the award's banquet, senior Pat Walsh won the Pioneer Award. This fall, the seniors on varsity will be attending top schools, many of them top rowing schools. This fall and spring season have been outstanding compared to past years and the whole team can give themselves a pat on the back for achieving a high level of success.

St. John's captures Cup

By Tim Benison
Correspondent

WORCESTER – St. John's won the Quinsigamond Cup for the first time in three years as it finished first in all three of its races yesterday on Lake Quinsigamond.

The Pioneers varsity boys' eight took first with a time of four minutes, 48 seconds.

Simsbury (Conn.) High came in second, six seconds behind, while East Lyme (Conn.) was third. Shrewsbury, with a time of 5:31, took fourth place.

TWO MORE FIRSTS

St. John's also claimed first place in the junior varsity eight and novice eight races.

The Pioneers' JV boat won with a time of 4:56.9. The novices came in at 5:11.4.

The Shrewsbury girls took third place in the junior varsity eight and fifth in the varsity eight races, while the boys managed a fourth-place finish in the junior varsity-eight.

"I'm completely happy," said St. John's coach John Ermilio. "It's about time we brought the Cup home where it belongs."

The Uncatchables

This year's spring track season ended the 1992-93 year with a District Championship. This completed the team's effort for the triple crown. For the third year in a row the Cross Country team, the Indoor Track team, and the Outdoor Track team have each won their respective District E titles. Coached by Richard Donahue, Brother Tom Pearson, and Tom Massarelli, the team completed their sweep of the schedule with a spectacular 12-0 record. Captains Mike Sabulis, Matt Hughes, and Matt Shook led the team to victories in the District Relays and the District All-Class meet. The future looks bright with runners such as John O'Mara, who broke the long standing Freshmen two mile record, and Adam Consigli, who broke the Sophomore shotput record. Adam also placed seventh in the discus at the District E Tournament. Both of these fine athletes finished well above the expectations of most. Andy Sprunger, a Senior at St. John's, ended his High School track career with an outstanding high jump of six feet and two inches.

As a finale to the season Coach Richard Donahue was inducted into the Holy Cross College Hall of Fame for his outstanding performance as a collegiate athlete.

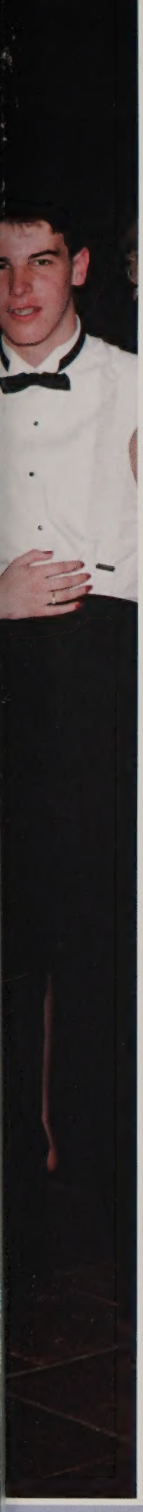
Dancing Ties

Couples take a break from the dance floor.



Prom '93 was a memorable night for the senior class. On April 17 over one hundred-fifty couples gathered at the Worcester Mariott to celebrate.

Seniors and their dates enjoyed the company of their classmates, moderators and invited guests Mr. & Mrs. Tony O'Donnell. There was dancing from start to finish. Class moderator Mr. Jourcin commented on the warm class spirit and the energy and enthusiasm displayed throughout the evening. For seniors the end of four special years was approaching.

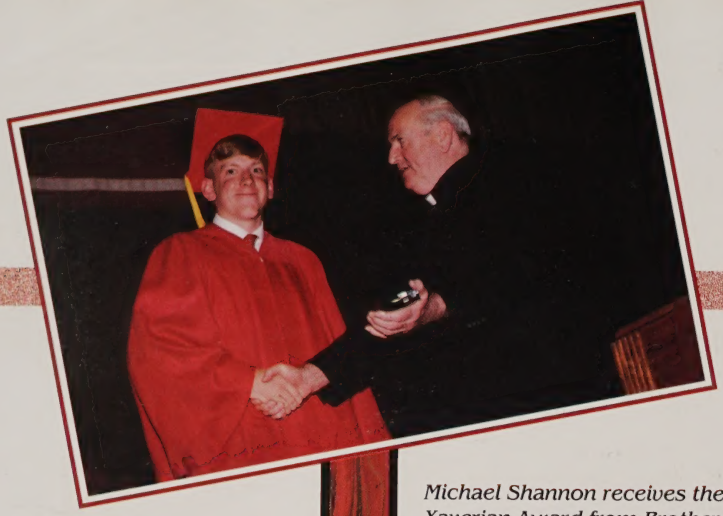
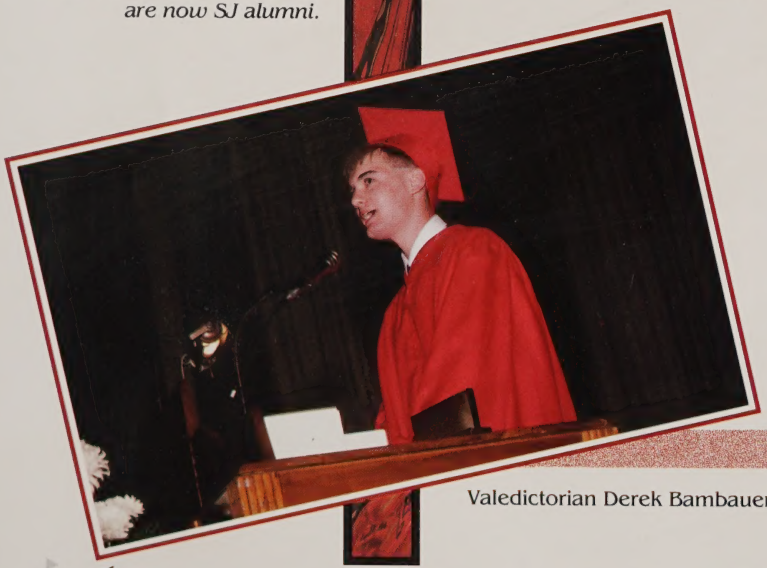
ST. JOHN'S
HIGH SCHOOL
XAVERIAN BROTHER

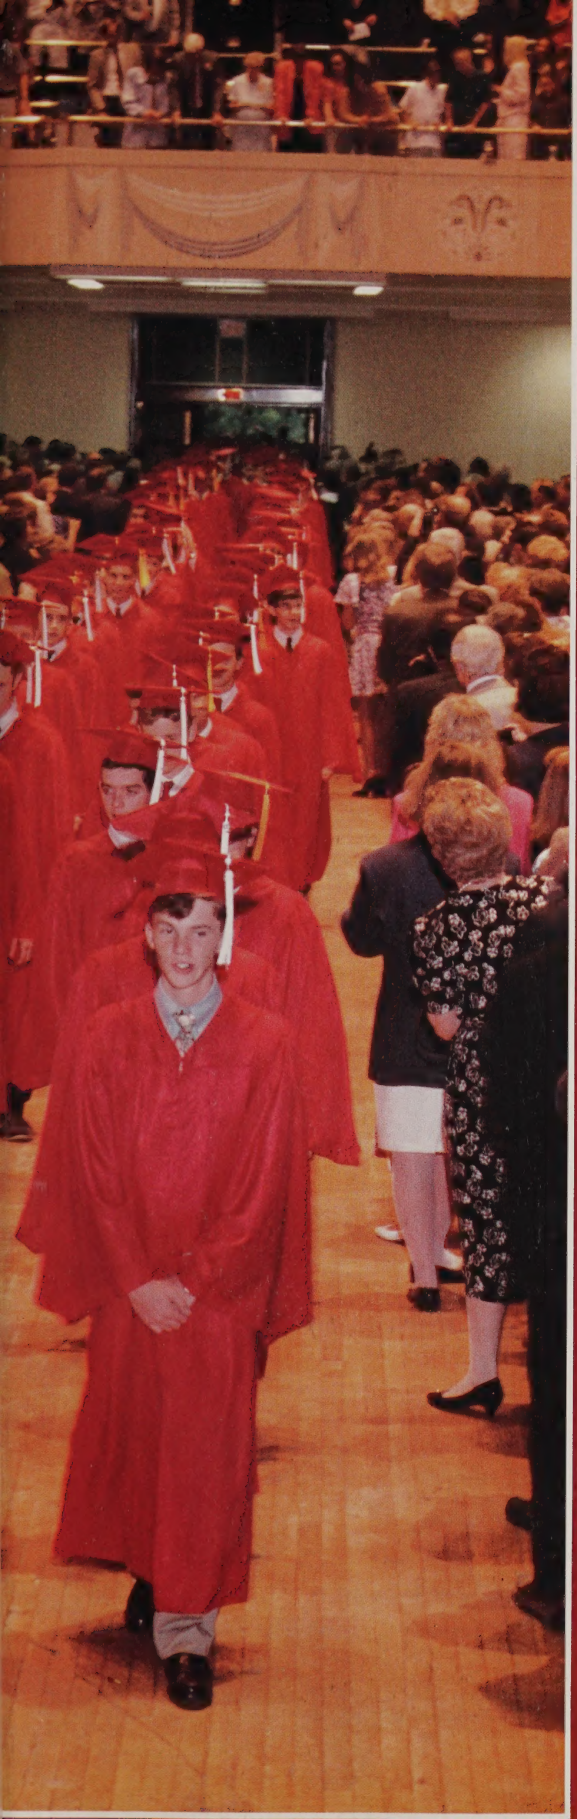


Michael Shannon receives the Xaverian Award from Brother Conal.

Dan Jordan, Scott Sheehey, Jason Trella and Mark Perry are now SJ alumni.



Valedictorian Derek Bambauer.



Final Ties

When the class of 1993 entered St. John's four years ago, members came from different places, had different perceptions of high school, and had different goals. However, there was one goal that all had in common and that was to receive a diploma from St. John's. Finally the day came. Through the years the class developed a distinct personality. Now we have graduated from St. John's, and although the future will be different for each of us, our years together will forever tie us together as the class of 1993.

John Bagaglio and Michael Barry lead the procession at Worcester Memorial Auditorium.

Acknowledgements:

The moderators Mr. Patrick Gillis and Brother Robert Furlong, C.F.X., the editors and staff of Different Ties would like to thank those without whom the 1993 St. John's High School yearbook would not have been such a success.

Brother J. Conal Owens, Brother Stephen Comeau, Brother Thomas Fahey, Brother Thomas Morrissey, Mr. Robert Moynagh, and Mr. Jay Coggins for their support.

The entire Student Activities Council and moderators Mr. Jay Coggins and Mr. Anthony O'Donnell for their generous allocation of funds.

The faculty and staff of St. John's for all their patience in assisting the staff in obtaining photos and in identifying students, as well as for their ideas and encouragement.

Mrs. Jeanne Garvey and Mrs. Nancy Lane for their services and assistance in the Business Office.

Mr. Francis "Skip" Doyle for sharing his professional photos with us.

The Worcester Telegram and Gazette and their photography staff for their permission to use some of their photos.

Mrs. Meg Curran and Mr. Raul Laborde for their assistance in photography.

Ms. Donna Bell of Walsworth Publishing Company for being a true customer service professional.

Mr. David Roth of Walsworth Publishing Company for the design of the opening and closing color sections graphics, as well as his creative ideas and enthusiastic encouragement.

Colophon:

The 1993 Saint John's High School Yearbook, entitled "Differen Ties," was published by Walsworth Publishing Company, 923 Ward Parkway, Kansas City, Missouri 64114. New Englan Regional Headquarters: 91 Payson Street, Fitchburg, Massachu setts 01420. Publishers Representative: David M. Roth.

500 copies were published in September of 1993, as well as 2,500 "Admissions Over-Runs' and 500 "Preview Books" publishe in July 1993. The yearbook consisted of 188 pages. 24 pages of 4 color were submitted. 164 pages of black and white were submit ted.

Pages #1-16 and 176A-H were printed on 100 pound Ultra Gloss number one grade paper. Pages #17-48 were printed on 8 pound Lustro Dull Cream Enamel number one grade paper. Page #49-180 were printed on 80 pound Signature Gloss number on grade paper.

Special effects included the usage of Red Marble, adapted fron Studio Designed cover #T-1993-HC, in the opening and closing 4 color sections. F327 Teal, F187 Cranberry, F480 Adobe, F336 For est Green and F278 Autumn Sky, along with various trapped spo colors, were also used.

Mezzotint and fibral screens, in percentages from 10 to 100% were also used throughout the 4-color and black and white sec tions.

Typography base styles were from the Benguait family. Head lines at 36 point bold. Sub-Heads at 18 point bold italic. Body Cop at 10 point regular. Captions at 10 point italic. Seniors at 14 poin bold. 24 point bold italic drop initials were also used for emphasis

The cover was produced on a base white book cloth, with appli cations in 4-color Red Marble, and Bright Red #182. The finishe covers were coated with a surface lamination process. The cove design, sketch and mock-up were produced by the Walsworth Pub lishing Company, Creative Services Department.

The 2,500 "Admissions Over-Runs" and 500 "Preview Books consisted of the yearbook's opening sixteen (16) pages, as well as a paper cover of 90 pound cover stock white Kromecoat. The cove was printed utilizing a Rose Marble background matching the year book's endsheet (#464), Gold # 801 and Black. The finished pape covers were coated with a surface lamination process.

Admissions information was printed on the inside front and bac covers of the "Admissions Over-Run" booklets.

The Senior Editors were Mark Galante, Mark Marinello and Adar Taranto. Advisers: Mr. Patrick Gillis, Brother Robert Furlong, C.F.X.

The 1993 Saint John's High School Yearbook wa chosen by Walsworth Publishing Company to be National Marketing Sample Book.
